PRIVACY POLICY

Renniks Trading Pty Ltd observes the National Privacy Principles in the Privacy Act 1988.

In dealing with you, we may collect certain information that is necessary for our dealings with you. Such information includes your name and contact details. It also includes personal and business information relating to transactions that you have with us, such as hiring our equipment, delivery, installation and removal of our equipment from your site, supplying related goods and services to you, receiving goods and services from you for our business, financial transactions such as payment of invoices, insurance and marketing.

Information collected about you is used or disclosed by us only for business transactions that we enter into, or propose to enter into, with you or in relation to you, and which you would reasonably expect us to use or disclose for that purpose. We do not use your information for any other purpose without your consent.

We take reasonable measures to ensure that information we hold about you in any form, such as on paper or electronically, is stored securely and protected from misuse.

You may at any time ask for access to information we have about you, and discuss with us any issues relating to that information. If you have any questions about privacy, please contact the General Manager, Renniks Trading Pty Ltd, at our business address.

A copy of the National Privacy Principles is available from the Office of the Australian Information Commissioner (T: 1 300 363 992 or website www.privacy.gov.au). If we are not able to resolve any issues relating to information we hold about you, you are welcome to contact the Office of the Australian Information Commissioner.
